of Park-Place school The assistant superintendent of Oregon school made a verbal report of the condition of the school, which shows that they are in a prosperous condition, with a good corps of efficient and earnest teachers and fficers. The amount of money contributed by this school is very large, considering the limited means of the membership of the church. Muster Willie Wies and Miss Jennie Wies, of Oregon school, each recited a poem in beautiful style. So perfect were these recitations that they received the highest commendations from all present. The President then called for short Christmas addresses, which was responded to by Rev. A. G. Brown, Rev. W. P. Wright. Asa Snyder, Robert E. Richardson, and others. Mr. T. L. D. Walford, treasurer of the Society, gave an interesting account of the school in China supported by this Society.

The President stated that Mrs. Lamburt, wife of Rev. Dr. Lamburt, of Shangbai, China, would visit this city again early in the ensuing year. Rev. A. G. Brown complimented the school and church on their succe-s, and expressed the wish that they might soon have a church edifice suited to their wants. The pastor stated that on Sunday, after the morning service, $500 was raised toward building a new church.

ASTRONOMY .- This subject will be treated n a course of four lectures by Rev. E. T. Baird at the Third Presbyterian church, Church Hill, commencing this evening. The lecturer is fully qualified to tell what science has revealed about the heavenly bodies, and in such a manner as to make it of the deepest interest to his hearers. The views which he gives with his powerful magic lantern are alone worth the price of admission. The lectures are adapted to the young as well as the old.

MANCHESTER AND VICINITY.

Church Notes .- There were services at all the churches in the city Sunday, and the congregations were quite large, notwithstanding the threatening weather.

The New Methodist Pastor .- Rev. B. F. Woodward, the newly-appointed minister to the Methodist church in this city, preached his introductory sermon Sunday morning to a large congregation. His text was appropriate to the occasion, and his sermon was listened to with profound attention Street church on the second Sunday in Janthroughout. The congregation seemed well pleased with their new pastor, who has already gained a host of friends, not withstanding the fact that he has been here but a short time.

Our Next Judge.-Considerable interest Is manifested here in regard to the election of a judge for the Hustings Court of this city by the Legislature. It is understood music. The first rehearsal of the choir with that Colonel S. Bassett French and Mr. James Gregory will be candidates for the position in opposition to the present efficient incumbent, Judge Clopton. It is also understood that Martin "Albino" Harris is a candidate for the same office.

Our City Fathers .- A resolution is expected to be presented at the next meeting of the City Fathers requesting the Legislature to give that body the control over the salary of the judge of the Hustings Court. About two years ago this matter engaged ing of pistols, razors, shoes, knives. &c., the attention of the Council, but nothing definite was done.
